

Less Selective Universities – offers for <30 points and for Certificates – a pooling of advice and experience .

Context –

- How do our IB DP and Certificate students ‘do’ at what have at times in the past been called the ‘recruiting’ universities?
- How does my view compare with yours?
- Which of these universities use the tariff?
- What would you like me to do to educate these universities on the IB?

Samples:

UEA
Chemistry	31 points	5 5 5 at higher level including Chemistry
Economics	32 points	----
English	32-33 points	6 points from English at Higher Level and another arts/humanities subject at HL with 5 points minimum.
French (Modern languages)	31 points	At least 6 in language to be studied - either French or Spanish.
Law	33 points	----
Philosophy	31 – 32 points	----

Huddersfield
Chemistry	26 points	Chemistry required
Business Management	26 points	----
English	28 points	English Language or Literature required
Music with a modern language	26 points	A level Music or equivalent required. Candidates intending to offer performance must have reached at least grade VIII standard.
Law	28 points	English required
Philosophy	----	----

UWE Bristol	UCAS tariff points	From UWE website
Forensic Chemistry	300 minimum (26 points)	Acceptable on its own & combined with other qualifications
Business Studies	300 (26 points)	Acceptable on its own & combined with other qualifications
English	340 (27points)	----
French	----	----
Law	300 – 340 (26 – 27 points)	----
Philosophy	300 (26 points)	----